Come and hear from SafeWork NSW as they help raise awareness of the dangers of Crystalline Silica exposure and learn how to better protect yourself. There has been growing concern across the industry that this could be the 'new' asbestos.

Protecting yourself and others

- Eliminate where possible, tasks that generate dust
- Substitute where possible (eg – composite stone) with safer products
- Use exhaust ventilation systems to capture and remove dust at the source
- Use dust capture systems on portable tools
- Apply water suppression systems to reduce dust generation
- Use well maintained and appropriate personal protective equipment (eg – respirators)
- Avoid using compressed air to remove or clean settled dust
- Follow instructions and controls outlined in safety data sheets and product labels.
